

United States – Mexico TIES

(Training, Internships, Exchanges, & Scholarships)

at

The University of Georgia

A Partnership for Prosperity Initiative Implemented by the
United States Agency for International Development
with Higher Education for Development

US-Mexico TIES Symposium

“Energy & Environmental Technologies for Sustainable Development”

April 17th, 2008

Driftmier Auditorium, Driftmier Engineering Center

Morning Session: 10:00 am - 12:30 pm

Introduction by Drs. K.C. Das and Nagamani Balagurusamy

Dr. John Worley - “Opportunities for Methane Digesters”

Dr. Ramiro Lopez Trujillo - “Status of Livestock Waste Management in Mexico”

Dr. Mark Risse - “Poultry Litter Distribution and Processing Options in Georgia”

Dr. Nagamani Balagurusamy - “Emission of Methane and Other Greenhouse Gases from Cattle”

Afternoon Session: 2:00 pm - 3:30 pm

Ing. Sergio Eduardo Vaquera Esparza - “Environmental Issues in the Laguna Region of Mexico”

Dr. Casey Ritz - “Reuse of Poultry Litter Bedding and Appropriate Litter Amendments to Suppress Ammonia Generation”

Ing. Jose Salvador Luevano Martinez - “Policy and Waste Management in Mexico”

TIES Internship introduction and presentation

Reception to follow

For more details please contact: kdas@engr.uga.edu

www.biorefinery.uga.edu